WHY A NURSERY EDUCATION?

A nursery education has benefits for young children, as it can help with development and early education. We believe it helps children in the following ways:

- Children learn new skills. children will learn a wide range of new skills, from language and physical skills, to early understanding of subjects like maths, sciences and technology. We hope parents will notice their child's skills develop during their time at our nursery.
- Children's social skills. A nursery enables your child to learn to socialise with other children and adults, which aids their successful development. Learning how to listen to others, solving disagreements and talking about your feelings will be learned at the nursery.

- Making friends. When your child joins Horris Hill Nursery, they are in the perfect location to begin forming friendships with other children. They will be surrounded by those of a similar age, and can make connections with the use of role play and group games. Research has shown that this is the most important thing a child has to learn in order to be happy and develop in their life.
- Extracurricular activities. We love to offer a wide range of extra activities and experiences for your child to discover. This includes Rugbytots, Music and P.E.
- Preparation for school. When your child joins the Horris Hill family in our Nursery, this is their first step in developing them as they move through to the main school. The nursery helps the children through the steps to provide them with the skills to be ready to start school.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Each term the nursery offers a range of weekly extracurricular activities. These help to vary your child's days, keep everyone active and ensure there is never a dull week!
- Extra activities have previously included Judo, Yoga and Rugby Tots. Information on how to sign up for activities and pricing will be communicated to all Nursery parents in advance.

SETTLING IN SESSIONS

Before your child starts at Horris Hill Nursery, we will invite you and your child to attend a minimum of two settling in sessions. These help you and your child to get to know your allocated nursery practitioner, and the other team members and children at the nursery.

They also help your child to get used to short periods of time at the nursery before building up to a full session. We ask you to help us gather as much information about your child as we can during these sessions.
