

HORRIS HILL SCHOOL

EAL Teacher

Part-time flexible working hours

We are currently seeking a passionate and experienced EAL Teacher to join our dedicated learning support team at the start of the academic year 2024-2025.

At Horris Hill we are committed to providing an outstanding education, in a nurturing environment where children can achieve consistently brilliant results. Our team is committed to providing each individual pupil with the tools they need to grow and succeed; academically and creatively. This role offers part-time flexible working hours.

Job Description:

As the EAL Teacher you will be responsible for assessing, planning, implementing, and evaluating a comprehensive EAL program that meets the diverse needs of our students. The successful candidate will work closely with other teachers and staff to support the academic and social integration of EAL students.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and deliver engaging EAL lessons tailored to students' varying levels of English proficiency.
- Assess students' language abilities and progress through formal and informal assessments.
- Provide individualized support and intervention to assist students in their language development.
- Monitor and report on students' progress, providing feedback to students, parents, and staff.
- Stay updated with the latest EAL teaching methodologies and participate in professional development opportunities.

Qualifications:

- TESOL, Applied Linguistics, or a related field.
- TEFL/TESOL certification or equivalent.
- Strong understanding of language acquisition theories and best practices in EAL instruction.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively.
- Proficiency in using technology to enhance language instruction.
